

Will Ott

Biography

With a passion for folk music from a young age, Will Ott has pursued discovering unique old songs for much of his life. Focusing specifically on instrumental music, Will has professionally performed at numerous historic and contemporary events over the years. This ultimately lead him to create his acoustic folk music project "Hagathorn" which bears the medieval name for the hawthorn tree. In addition to performing, Will is also a music recording artist who has released albums on the professional Sweden based record label Nordvis. <https://hagathorn.bandcamp.com/music>
